

APRIL 6-8, 2012

Join Madison Scuba for a weekend of diving at Bonne Terre Mine in Bonne Terre, Missouri

What is Bonne Terre Mine? A former mine that is now a billion gallon lake with 500,000 watts of overhead lighting.

What is the diving like? The water is a constant 58 °F with >100 feet of visibility year-round. Dives are generally to a depth of 40-60 ft.

How much does it cost? $70 per dive (two dive minimum) plus about $50 per night for double occupancy hotel accommodations. The group is planning to do three dives on Saturday and two dives on Sunday.

What do I need to bring? Your c-card , log book and gear. Gear rental is available from Madison Scuba.

How do we get there? It is a seven hour drive. There will be a carpool leaving Friday morning around 9am from the Dutch Mill Park N Ride near the intersection of Hwy 12-18 and S. Stoughton Road. Please let us know if you prefer to be a driver or a passenger.

Where can I get more information? The website for Bonne Terre mines is www.2dive.com or call Stick at 608.886.2800

I want to go! What next? You can sign up at www.madisonscuba.com or by calling Stick (608.886.2800). Make checks for your diving payable to Madison Scuba upon sign-up. If paying by credit card, please add $2.10 per dive to your total.

Sign up early! Space is limited.
